BELIEVED BALKANS READY TO BREAK LOOSE

Russians Claim Further Successes in Eastern Zone but Official Details of Past 24 Hours are Meagre.

Berlin, April 5. (By Wireless to Sayville.)—A report received in Berlin from Athens says the British battleship Lord Nelson, stranded inside the Dardanelles straits, has been destroyed by the fire of Turkish guns on shore.

This information was given out today by the Overseas News Agency.

A council of war held by the British and French admirals, the Allies' dispatch continues, decided to postpone the attempts to force the Dardanelles on account of the insufficient strength of the landing expedition.

This dispatch contains the first intimation of the loss of the British battleship Lord Nelson. Her name has not been mentioned in any of the dispatches concerning the Dardanelles operations.

She was 110 feet long, displaced 16,500 tons and was built in 1906. She was armed with four 12-inch guns, ten 9.2-inch and thirteen 3-inch guns and carried a complement of 865 men.

London, April 5. (1:55 p. m.)—The Glasgow steamer Olivine and the Russian bark Hermes were sunk by a German submarine Sunday afternoon off the Isle of Wight. The crews of the two vessels took to their boats and were rescued by a British torpedo boat destroyer.

The loss of the Russian bark terred to in the above dispatch was reported yesterday. At this time her name was not known. Fifteen members of the bark's crew got ashore safely. The Hermes was a three-masted bark of 973 tons.

Current maritime records do not contain any reference to a steamer named Olivine.

London, April 5. (2:25 p. m.)—The roving band of Bulgars, driven out of Serbia after its sudden raid, has penetrated Greece at three points, according to Salonic dispatches. The English press sees in this episode the possibility of developments which may mean a flare-up in the smoldering Balkan situation. Advice reaching London by way of Rome, however, assert that Bulgaria has agreed to give full satisfaction to Serbia. All the Balkan nations, as well as Italy, are awaiting the outcome with interest.

Meanwhile Greece is massing troops along the Bulgarian frontier and Balkan revolutionaries, according to advices from Salonic, have received orders to join the colors. In the countries allied against Germany, Austria and Turkey and these recent developments are blamed upon German intrigue.

The Carpathian front is the quarter in which a decision of first importance is expected soon. London seems to be confident that the Bulgars will break through into Hungary. The Aus-

GIFFORD PINCHOT EXPelled FROM BELGIUM BY GERMANS

The Hague, Netherlands, April 5.—(Via London, 8:50 p. m.)—Gifford Pinchot, ex-chief forester of the United States, who it is understood has been acting as special agent for the state department at Washington in the European war zone, has been expelled from Belgium by the German authorities.

ROME RELIEVES TURKEY SEEKS TO MAKE PEACE

Rome, April 5. (8:50 p. m., via Paris, April 5, 1:20 a. m.)—In spite of various official denials from some of the belligerent nations that preliminary steps have been taken to conclude peace, especially by Austria and Turkey without consulting Germany, the report that Djavid Pasha, Turkish minister of finance, is now in Switzerland on a mission of peace, finds credence here.

It is pointed out that Djavid Pasha was one of the first Turkish envoys to undertake at Ouchy, Switzerland, the conclusion of an Anglo-Turkish peace and that he conducted his preliminary negotiations by roundabout methods through neutral diplomats. While he has denied emphatically that he is at present engaged in a similar mission, it is considered here that this denial should not be taken too seriously, because he scarcely could admit at this time that his government seeks a cessation of hostilities. Similar denials were made by him when he first undertook the task of bringing about an agreement between Italy and Turkey.

The French war office announced that in the British raid on German positions in Belgium last month two German submarines were destroyed and the naval construction yards at Hoboken damaged badly. It is said that forty German workmen were killed and sixty-two wounded.

The German official statement says several attacks by Belgians and French yesterday were repulsed.

The American note concerning the measures decided upon by Great Britain and her allies to cut off trade to and from Germany will be made public tomorrow morning.

Notwithstanding official denials, it is believed in Rome that there is a basis for the report that Turkey and possibly Austria are considering the initiation of peace negotiations. In this connection significance is attached to the presence in Switzerland of Djavid Pasha, Turkish minister of finance. Rome dispatches say his denial that he is on a peace mission should not be regarded seriously. Official denial was made at Vienna last week that peace negotiations were being conducted in the forest of Le Prete by blowing up several mines.

"The Belgians attempted to concentrate reinforcements in the direction of Drei Grachten, which, with the exception of some houses on the northern side, has been in our hands since April 3. The Belgian troops were repulsed by our artillery."

The Turkish war office says that the Turkish fleet has sunk two Russian ships on the Black sea near Odessa. It is said also that a mine sweeper which attempted to approach the entrance to the Dardanelles was destroyed.

Serbian losses in the border fighting with Bulgarian irregulars were placed at Nish at 100 men killed or wounded. The Bulgarian force, it is said, amounted to one and one-half regiments.

Beyond the admission that Austrian forces in the Beskids had been compelled to retreat, Vienna has given no indications of the status of affairs along that section of the Hungarian frontier. There is as yet no indication whether Hungary is threatened seriously with invasion. The Russian war office not only claims a great success in the Beskids but asserts definite advantages have been gained over the Germans in northern Poland.

NOTE ON THE FRYE
BRIEF AND POINTED

Washington, April 5.—The American note to Germany on the sinking of the American sailing ship William P. Frye by the German auxiliary cruiser Prince Eitel Friedrich was made public here today. It is very brief. It is confined principally to a recital of the legal aspects of the sinking of the Frye and in polite and

RIGID CENSORSHIP PREVENTS ACCURATE INFORMATION ABOUT VAST MOVEMENT OF TROOPS

Chiasso, Switzerland, April 5. (Via Paris, 2:20 p. m.)—The assembling of Italian troops on the Austrian frontier is continuing with the greatest activity. All houses of peasants in the districts bordering the frontiers affected have been occupied by soldiers. This information reaches Chiasso from Italian sources. It is learned from the same sources that still more important military activity is under way. Information on this point is refused transmission by Italian censors.

HUNDRED LIVES ARE LOST IN GREAT COAST STORM

CHICAGO MEN UP IN AIR ON ELECTION RESULT

List of Casualties Grows Formidable as Reports Come in of Vessels Missing and Known to be Wrecked.

New York, April 5.—Latest reports received here of the effects of the storm which swept the Atlantic coast Friday and Saturday indicate that nearly a hundred lives were lost.

The Royal Dutch West Indian steamer Prins Maurits, with 49 persons aboard, is believed to have foundered off Cape Hatteras. Not a word that would give hope that the vessel was still afloat was received today.

Fifteen of the crew of the sunken tug Edward Luckenbach perished when the tug was wrecked off False Cape, Va.

Ten men were drowned when two coal barges broke away from the tug Cumberland and were pounded to pieces off Cape Henlopen, Del.

The ten men aboard the barge Tampico, which broke away from her tow, are believed to have been lost.

Dozens of barges, schooners and other craft went ashore along the coast. Their crews were rescued by other vessels or coast guards.

COURT MARTIAL FOR FRENCHMAN WHO KILLED WIFE

Paris, April 5. (15:30 a. m.)—Captain Heraill, an officer in the French cavalry, will be tried by court martial Saturday for killing his wife at Compiegne because she persisted in following the army to be near him, in direct violation of orders issued by the military authorities. For some time after the crime Heraill was a mental and physical wreck. It was feared that he would not survive, but recently he recovered and was turned over to the military police by the naval authorities.

After Captain Heraill was sent to the front, his wife, to whom he was deeply attached, learned that he was stationed at Compiegne and followed him there. This was at the time when the general in chief issued a circular prohibiting all officers and soldiers from receiving their wives during the campaign. His superior remonstrated with Captain Heraill and he tried to induce his wife to leave, but she continued to postpone her departure. A second warning was given to the captain, with no better result. When a third warning came he was told he would be cashiered unless Mme. Heraill left at once. This she refused to do and the cavalry officer, fearing disonor and degradation, shot the woman he loved.

CHICAGO FLORIST DIES OF FRIGHT

Chicago, April 5.—William Weil, 55, a florist, died of shock and fright today after he had been attacked, bound and robbed by robbers who entered his place of business in West Sixty-third street. The florist, who was said to be wealthy, was found bound hand and foot. Robbery is believed by the police to have been the motive for the murder.

KANSAS COWBOY KNOCKS OUT JACK JOHNSON IN 26TH ROUND OF GREAT BATTLE AT HAVANA

Fight all in Favor of Johnson Until After Twentieth Round
When Vitality of Big Black was Exhausted from Grueling contest. Willard Takes Lead in the Twenty-Fifth and with Battle in His Hands, Finishes Negro with Ease in Twenty-Sixth. The Fight by Rounds.

Havana, April 5.—Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, is the new heavyweight champion pugilist of the world. He knocked out Jack Johnson, the black champion, in the twenty-sixth round of their championship bout here today.

It was Johnson's fight all the way until the twenty-second round when his vitality left him because of the hard pace which he carried throughout the early rounds.

The Kansas pugilist then opened his heaviest attack and in the next few rounds carried the fight away from the black man and topped him over with rights and lefts to the jaw and gloves to the face.

Seventeen thousand persons saw the combat and when Johnson crumpled up on the floor from a fierce right swing to the jaw, the crowd burst into the ring. Spectators cleared the ring.

Johnson took the referee's count while lying on the ropes, but the moment after before Welsh had given the decision, the former champion got to his feet in time to greet the wild rush of excited spectators.

The knockout came so suddenly that the big crowd seemed as much dazed as Johnson himself. Up to the time of the final blow Johnson showed but few marks of battle, but had slowed down so perceptibly during the fight, Willard said as he was being escorted away that he was never more or in danger at any time.

Johnson said he had no excuse to offer and that "better and younger man had taken the championship title."

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.
ROUND 1.—Johnson feinted and landed his left on Willard's jaw. He repeated uppercuts with right to Willard's jaw. The latter was very nervous. Johnson was laughing. Willard drove two lefts to the negro's body. Johnson drove right to Willard's body.

ROUND 2.—Johnson easily blocked Willard's lead, feinting him out of position and scoring right and left to the jaw. Willard replied with a thrashing right to negro's body. Johnson smacked the cowboy with a left to the jaw. Johnson landed three lefts to the negro's body. Johnson then hooked a left to the stomach. Johnson then landed three lefts to the body. Willard laughed. Johnson then drove Willard to the ropes with a tattoo of lefts to the face.

ROUND 4.—Willard lunged ineffectually. Johnson laughed at his clumsy efforts. There was much feinting. Johnson landed a left to the ribs and swung his right and left to the body and his left to Willard's face. Johnson landed left on the body and a left to the head. His way you do it?"

ROUND 5.—Willard poked a right with a left to Willard's face. The referee ordered the fighters to break from a clinch. The negro smashed hard to Willard's ribs and drove three blows to the cowboy's stomach. The champion rushed Willard to the ropes, scoring punches to the head and to the body. Willard was badly distressed. The challenger was rattled and boxed like an amateur.

ROUND 6.—The negro was calm at the opening of this round. He beat Willard to the ropes with a fusillade of lefts. On the break Johnson landed a smash to the giant's jaw. The negro rubbed Willard's cut lip to the jaw in return. He next hooked his left to the white man's body, repeating this blow a moment later. The champion landed right and left to the head as the bell rang.

ROUND 7.—The round opened with Willard chopping Johnson a right uppercut. The challenger was the aggressor and tried to force the fighting. Johnson slammed Willard on the mouth with a left. Jess only laughed. The negro was beginning to miss his lead. Willard drove a hard right to Johnson's ear. The negro smashed hard left to the body at the bell.

ROUND 8.—The crowd jeered Johnson who rushed Willard to the ropes and scored five hard swings, remarking, "What a grand old man." Willard swung at the remark. The bell found both pugilists fighting in the center of the ring.

ROUND 9.—Johnson missed a left to the head and they clinched. The challenger blocked the negro's rush. Amid much fighting the black man said, "Willard is a good kid," and then rushed Jess to the ropes, scoring hard punches to the body. The negro drove terrific swing to Willard's side. The challenger was a trifle unsteady in going to his corner at the end of this round.

ROUND 10.—Johnson hooked a left to his opponent's jaw and a right uppercut to the same place. Willard landed a right to Johnson's body and a left to the head. Willard again scored a right to the body and blocked the negro's return. Jack drove Willard to a corner and landed two swings to the head. Johnson again hooked a right to the body and followed it up with two punches to the head.

ROUND 11.—After placing a tattoo on Willard's chest, the negro drove Willard to a corner where the negro smacked him twice on the jaw. Willard's leads were easily picked off by the champion. After several tries Jess landed a straight left to Johnson's face and a right swing to the jaw. At the bell Johnson landed a punch to the body and another to the head.

ROUND 12.—Johnson was showing from his corner when the negro drove Willard to the center of the ring. Johnson immediately started a rally by driving three hard blows to Willard's stomach. A left by Willard landed the negro's mouth bleeding. The latter slugged the white man to the ropes.

ROUND 13.—Johnson was showing from his corner when the negro drove Willard to the center of the ring. Johnson immediately started a rally by driving three hard blows to Willard's stomach. A left by Willard landed the negro's mouth bleeding. The latter slugged the white man to the ropes.

ROUND 14.—Both pugilists slowed up a bit. Willard now was the aggressor. Johnson stood in the middle of the ring. Johnson drove a left to Willard's ribs and sent him
